4. Walk down the footpath

The footpath will lead you right through an underpass of Putney Bridge and directly into Fulham Palace Gardens.

5. Follow Themse Path

As the park is adjacent to river Themse, all you have to do is to walk straight on along the river.

6. Leave the park

The Themse Path will get you directly to the ground. Leave the park to your righthand side and you will be right in front of the entrance to the Putney End.

General Information

Line: District Line to Putney Bridge

Travel time from Embankment: 25 minutes

Walking time from Rail Station to the ground Stadion: approx. 15 minutes

Alternatives: You can also get off at the Hammersmith tube station and walk from there (a little bit more than 20 minutes) or take a bus, which calls at Fulham Palace Road.

After the final whistle: There definately are queues at the tube station after the match, but it's not really bad. If you're not up for waiting, walk to the Hammersmith tube station or take a bus on Fulham Broadway.

Please note: If matches take place in the evening, the park premises might be closed after a certain time. This, however is no problem, you can simply walk around the park (e.g. Fulham Palace Road -> Bishop's Park Road -> Stevenage Road).
